Alternative Dispute Resolution, commonly referred to as ADR, is a program that offers alternatives to litigation and provides opportunities for early, party-driven, fair resolution of conflicts. The purpose of ADR is to facilitate settlements and agreements on issues defined by the parties.

Other ways to resolve lawsuits are known as alternative dispute resolution (also called ADR). ADR is a general term which includes mediation, facilitation, and other out-of-court strategies for resolving cases without going to trial. ADR allows the parties to play a more active role in resolving their dispute in a more informal setting.
